FRIDAY, AUGUST 16

THERE'S A REASON, NO DOUBT

Apparently the provincial auditor's report for the last fiscal year is not going to see the light of day until after the election is over. The Tories will draw their own conclusions.

The cash statement has been issued for the three months ending June 30th. Why not the audited report for the year ending March 31st?

THE SHUFFLE AT OTTAWA

It is to be said for Premier Borden that he has been good to his adopted province. With his indefatigable energy he has done much of them to the Senate, the bench and commissions of one kind and another. Likely he would have taken care of the rest in the same way if there had been vacancies enough to go round.

As for the lucky ones, they do not seem to have felt any qualms about deserting the ship and leaving the Premier to draft a make-shift crew for his battle with the electors. Some thought they had to do it, and maybe he thought the same way about it. And after being bullied, brow-beaten and bossed around for five years on end they deserve peace and quiet for a while.

If we could get the ones who have deserted to the others, and lacking in experience, they have at least one advantage. They couldn't be much less useful than the deserters, for the skipper insists on being the "whole works."

And, anyway, it won't be long now.

WHICH CITIZENS?

Edmonton is the capital city of Alberta. But with twenty-seven candidates in the field for the six city seats, there isn't one of them flaunting the U.F.A. Government banner to the breeze in any conspicuous way.

The Hon. the Attorney-General is the only avowed member of the opposition of the Government running in Edmonton, and he does not seem to be anxious to advertise the honor. In the roster of nominees his name appears in the U.F.A. column, but the facade of his committee room is adorned with a sign informing the passerby that Mr. Lyburn is a Citizens candidate.

This is interesting. It suggests another cage has been added to our political zoos. When was the last time the party in power was so afraid of the opposition convention? And, seeing we are all citizens, which particular group does Mr. Lyburn profess to represent, or want to represent, those citizens who are living in the city, or those who are out in the road camps and have been deprived of their votes because they are there?

AT LAST!

While almost any date for a federal election it would have been welcomed by the public, it was perhaps as well that the event was delayed from the 1st to the 10th. His Excellency's deflation so long, the added month will not break the country, and the earlier date would have found farmers in western Canada busy in the harvest fields.

The mid-month of October will of course find them busy threshing and hauling out the grain, but when the early summer was past there was no time before winter which would have coincided with a slack time on the farm. From that time on, the harvest of the year is as good a date as any. At least it is no more unfavorable for the farmer voter than the date chosen by the "farmer" Government of Alberta.

Buy as the farmers may be on both occasions, the little damage that may be done will not get to the public. Public interest has never been more keenly aroused in federal or provincial affairs, and the people on the land, like the people in towns, are in a mood to make their voices heard. The election will at least give the opportunity. It will be worth knocking off work for a few hours to tell the election-dodgers what the voter thinks of them.

MR. STEVENS VERSUS MR. BENNETT

If Edmonton Conservatives have any doubts about the mess the Bennett Government has made of the country, they will be well brought upon the Hon. H. H. Stevens confirmed their worst fears and substantiated the severest criticisms of political opponents of the Ministry. Nobody has used any stronger language than he did in his speech to the chamber of commerce, the little damage that may be done will not get to the public. Public interest has never been more keenly aroused in federal or provincial affairs, and the people on the land, like the people in towns, are in a mood to make their voices heard. The election will at least give the opportunity. It will be worth knocking off work for a few hours to tell the election-dodgers what the voter thinks of them.

THE THIRTY-THREE SOLDIERS

In the aftermath of the war, the restoration of business, the resulting restoration of business, employment, property values and self-dependent citizenship. That part of the picture was accurate in outline and detail.

That this concentration of wealth and the merging of industries was in active progress before the present Government came into power is quite true. But in those days of general prosperity neither Mr. Stevens nor anyone else was thinking about regulating anything or anybody. The only thing that was apparent when the depression settled down and the condemnation lies with those who failed to take action at that time.

Unfortunately Mr. Stevens did not attempt to cover the whole field of the depression, nor even to propose the program he has drawn up as a chart for his insurrectionary movement. Nor did he trace the depression back to its source and refer to the part Canada played five years ago and again four years ago in the major cause of blocking the world's trade channel.

He could not do that without condemning tariff, trade and finance policies which he advocated five years since and in the enforcement of which he was a participating agent until last fall. It is the same old story. Behind those barriers there can be hope of trade revival and the return of general welfare.

Some agency will undoubtedly have to be employed to curb the capacity of those who use the power of massed capital to rob their employees and those dependent on their employment. Mr. Stevens is one man per cent right. But restraining the wolves and monetizing gold will not start the currents of international commerce flowing again; and until those currents get flowing freely there can be neither prosperity nor peace.

As a condemnation of the Government, the late Minister presented a sufficiently complete case to justify him in quitting the cabinet and leading a party revolt.

For the restoration of the country he had nothing to offer but a series of the instructions of the party which business and government—when business is being done. The prescription falls short of meeting the difficulty at present because what needs to be done first and foremost is to get business moving once more. Twisting the steering wheel doesn't get one anywhere when the car is stalled.

A correct list of the victims of the Ku Ching massacre in China is as follows: Rev. and Mrs. Stewart, Miss Nellie Saunders and Miss Lena Irene. The Rev. Mr. Marshall, Mrs. Neeson, was gashed and thrown down the stairs. Miss Marshall had her throat cut. Miss Gordon appeared in the head. Miss Topy Saunders, fractured. Lena Stewart, died from shock. The correspondent concluded: "The other Stewart children are safe and healthy." The Coddington were slightly injured.

The Chinese magistrate at the place kept away until the massacre had occurred.

There were a thousand Chinese soldiers at the place, and the authorities could have prevented the killing if they chose to do so.

The American mission, Shanxi, near Harbin, has been destroyed, and the missionaries are fugitives.

The American consul has advised missionaries at other points to get to the coast.

Startling Expose of U.F.A.

LYMBURN IS ATTACKED BY
G. VAN ALLEN

Liberal Candidate Charges
Attorney-General Had His Opportunity

A startling expose of U.F.A. administration in the past taken by its Edmonton representative, the Hon. J. F. Lymburn, in a speech by Mr. Van Allen, K.C., Liberal candidate for Edmonton, at a crowded meeting at the Masonic Temple on Thursday night.

The speech, which by the speaker covered the period from the time Mr. Lymburn entered the U.F.A. government in 1926, and time and time again the audience registered their disapproval of the attorney-general's conduct.

The speaker said that the speaker was elected as the city representative in a co-operative government.

Summarized this is the legislative record of Mr. Lymburn, as stated by Mr. Van Allen:

"For two years, 1927 and 1928, as the voice of delay, old politics in Alberta was still after war he fought every attempt by opposition to get rid of him and reduced taxes; he opposed increases in minimum wages; he voted again against application of financial reports; he voted again against the bill of rights and of reports of court cases; he refused free jury trials and above all, he opposed every bill and almost every move in the last three years toward monetary reform, sound money party.

Upon record, to renew his request for a recall, he said:

"In the face of this record," said Mr. Van Allen, "which extends over two years, after fighting in every party, every way, every corner from other parts of the House, he now says, 'I have always been here' that he has always sat in the Assembly should be non-partisan."

"The people of Edmonton no longer need his services in the Assembly, to which he belongs deserves nothing but oblivion. By these words you see."

EDMONTON HAS INTEREST

In commenting his speech, Mr. Van Allen said:

The people of Edmonton have a two-fold interest in the record of the U.F.A. government. Firstly, because the party is seeking control of the Legislature, and secondly, because Attorney-General Howson is a member of that government, is asking the electors to put the stamp of approval on the record of the party, in getting their ballots in his favor on August 22nd."

When Mr. Lymburn entered the government in 1926, it was understood that Premier Brownie's desire was to have him as far removed away from class government. In supporting Mr. Lymburn, the speaker said that the election of the speaker believed that the "broading effect" of Mr. Lymburn could not be carried into effect. Mr. Lymburn was to be a city representative in a co-operative cabinet. The capital city was anxious to have the man in the government that meant so much to the welfare of the province. From 1926 to 1929 there has always been at least one or two U.F.A. members in the Alberta cabinet. As a result, Edmonton has become the capital and the site of the seat of government and the gateway to the great north.

LOSS OF SIGHT OF ROLE

"Instead of playing his intended role as a representative of a co-operative government, Mr. Lymburn completely lost sight of that role, and in the end, was led away by Henry Wager in advancing groupism and class rule."

In the opinion of this speaker, a minimum wage was not the only standard to be used, but should now be reconsidered in view of an upward trend of lower class inflation."

That motion was supported by all the Liberal and Labor members, but Mr. Lymburn voted against the motion.

SUPPLEMENTARY REVENUE TAX

"On February 12th, 1926, Mr. Webster moved that the supplementary revenue tax should be abandoned, but Mr. Lymburn voted for the motion.

That was the first of the speaker's motions that the speaker believed should be abandoned, but Mr. Lymburn voted against it.

AUTOMOBILE LICENSES

"On February 14, 1926, Mr. Shaw, Liberal leader, moved that the committee of the assembly investigate the question of granting assistance to the disabled. This was a special measure, but Mr. Lymburn voted against it.

"Liberal and Conservative members voted against and defeated the motion.

ASSISTANCE TO MOTHERS

"On February 18, 1926, Mr. Shaw, Liberal leader, moved that the committee of the assembly investigate the question of granting assistance to the disabled. This was a special measure, but Mr. Lymburn voted against it.

"Liberal and Conservative members voted against and defeated the motion.

FREE HOMESTEADS

"On February 17, Mr. Montgomery, Liberal member for Wetaskiwin, moved that the government should be authorized to make available to any member of the family of such person, 17 years old or more, a homestead to obtain entry for a homestead."

The intention was to allow any Canadian citizen to get a free homestead in Alberta, but the bill was never introduced in the legislature and was never passed.

"The U.F.A. refused to discuss this motion, but Mr. Lymburn supported the proposal to finance it in order to prevent it from being introduced again."

"The Liberals and Conservatives voted for the motion.

REDUCED COST OF GOVERNMENT

"On March 26, 1926, Mr. Montgomery, Liberal member for Wetaskiwin, moved that the government should be authorized to make available to any member of the family of such person, 17 years old or more, a homestead to obtain entry for a homestead."

The intention was to allow any Canadian citizen to get a free homestead in Alberta, but the bill was never introduced in the legislature and was never passed.

"The U.F.A. refused to discuss this motion, but Mr. Lymburn supported the motion.

The motion is contained in the journals of the assembly. It is a crushing indictment of failure and incompetence.

OPPOSED OLD AGE PENSIONS

"Mr. Lymburn's first appearance in the legislature was the session of 1927. In that session several questions of interest were raised.

The first recorded vote in which Mr. Lymburn participated, occurred on February 1, 1927, when Mr. Shaw, Liberal leader, introduced a motion.

The motion is contained in the journals of the assembly. It is a crushing indictment of failure and incompetence.

Pappy Out Of Luck

Hero meets heroine; they fall in love and, defying parental objections, elope—this is one of the most dramatic situations described to a "Pappy Out of Luck" reader in the six-week romance of Marjorie Reid, leftist, socialite actress, and Douglas Fowley, stage and screen actor, in Hollywood. They have been engaged to each other since the actress' recent departure to New York. "We're in love at last," is Fowley's answer to objections of the bride's father, R. J. Sampson, California mining engineer, to the match.

made available with the least possible delay to the deserving, qualified and aged people of Alberta.

OPPOSED REVISION TAXATION

"On February 8, 1927, Mr. Howson moved that a detailed investigation be made into the whole question of taxation, both provincial and municipal, so that the tax burden would be borne fairly and equally by all persons."

Such a provision is now found in the Liberal platform. Mr. Lymburn voted against the motion and was defeated by his U.F.A. associates.

FIGHTS REDUCED GOVERNMENT

"On February 12, 1927, Mr. Howson moved that inasmuch as the government had been going behind the people, it was necessary to impose to make up the shortage, that the government should forthwith publicly recognize the right of the provinces to accept for the next two years, one-half the interest rate paid by the provinces on outstanding debts, in full satisfaction of the interest thereon for the said period."

"The speaker supported the amendment, but Mr. Lymburn voted against it.

FREE TRIAL BY JURY

Proceeding to further enlighten his hearers as to Mr. Lymburn's actions, the speaker said:

"On February 22, 1929, the Conservative leader moved a resolution to make trial by jury to all citizens poor and rich alike, the right of trial by jury to all citizens. Mr. Lymburn voted against the motion."

"On February 19, 1929, Mr. Webster, Liberal member for Calgary, moved that the government should be responsible for the government's actions."

"On February 19th, 1929, Mr. F. Prevey, Liberal member for Edmonton, moved:

"That in the opinion of this assembly a minimum wage was not the only standard to be used, but should now be reconsidered in view of an upward trend of lower class inflation."

That motion was supported by all the Liberal and Labor members, but Mr. Lymburn voted against the motion.

RAILROADERS TO GET WORK AFTER JAN. 5

Uward of 100 men, who have been unemployed or in only partial employment in the last three years, will be back on the job with the Canadian National Railways here after January 5, 1928, railmen here estimate.

On January 5 the new federal eight-hour day law will be effective in nearly all industries and no doubt will be expected to be of greater benefit than the ratification of the act.

Although full details of the new law are not yet available, it has been received by brotherhood officers here yet, it is expected that many engine crews are now permitted to make each month what will be making many men back on the payroll.

At the present time engine crews, with the full monthly mileage is about $1000, while the cost of 32 hours work is about $1000.

The maximum mileage is approximately 3200 miles for freight and 4000 for passenger.

It is believed that the new law will increase the maximum figure to 6000 miles per month.

FARMER KILLED

EDMONTON, Aug. 16.—G. Schreiber, 56, a retired grain elevator operator, was killed when cutting wheat with the help of his son, 18, in a field near his home.

The son, who was cutting the wheat with a scythe, was hit in the head by a falling scythe.

Both men were taken to the hospital.

There is no record of the man's death.
